

Silliman University
 Volunteer Community Engagements (Outreach/Community Involvement) SY 2012-2015
 Name of Unit: PHILOSOPHY DEPARTMENT / College of Arts and Sciences

Project/Activities	Description	Location	Time Frame	Faculty Involved	No. of Student Volunteers	Outcome/s	Remark/s
Child-Youth Development Program in GK Village in collaboration with GK Foundation	Child-Youth Development Program is a program centered on personality development, values formation, and social involvement of the children and youth of the GK Village. This Child-youth development program is intended to handle the needs of the three groups of children and youth. The GK SIBOL (sibol means to grow) serves children ages from 3 to 6 years old; the GK Sagip (sagip means "to save") is an acronym for Sagipin Ang Galing, Isip, at Pangarap ng mga Kabataan which seeks to nurture the newfound hope of	GK Village Malaunay, Valencia	2013 - 2015 Every 1 st & 3 rd Saturday of the Month from 1:00pm to 5:00pm	All Faculty	All Philo Major students	The students were able to develop their social skills in community organizing and youth facilitation. They were also able to increase their self-confidence in relating with the people as well as in improving their leadership skills in handling group activities. For the two years of facilitating the formation of the children and the youth of the village, we noticed improvement in the way they relate with each other, the manner of behaving in front of other people, the commitment in taking care of the needs of the village, and the maturity in analyzing community	The Village, the EI and the GK founda requested for an extension of the ser to GK Village. T department decide have another 5 ye (2015-2020) of serv the Village not oi focusing on Child Youth Developmer also on family min livelihood program health empowerr program. For this reason, the is need of some n training and assista expand the kind service they givv people.

	GK youth aged 7 to 13 through values formation activities that promote love for God, country, family, and fellowmen; and the GK SIGA (siga meaning "to give light") seeks to empower the youth in GK communities aged 14 to 21 years old by being responsible, caring, and matured individuals within the village.					issues as well as decision-making.
--	---	--	--	--	--	------------------------------------	--